The Living Faiths series encourages students to actively engage with RE by looking into how faiths are practised and lived in people's daily lives. This Student Book covers Buddhism through unique real-life case studies of young people and their families, making RE relevant to KS3 RE Students today. This Student Book uses an enquiry-led approach to help students relate to RE through engaging activities, end-of-chapter assessment tasks, and links to rich audio-visual content.

With grace and warmth, Colleen Faulkner tells an unflinching, yet heartrending, story of mothers and daughters, and of the risk we all take, both in loving and in letting go. In order to compete in the modern world, any society today must rank education in science, mathematics, and technology as one of its highest priorities. It's a sad but true. Jenn Farrell's smart, observant stories about desire and escape take us to the places we're all afraid to admit we've been. Read The Devil You Know with greed and a hot.
